

Forbes

Two-For-One First Class Tickets And Other Very Last Minute Valentine Gifts

Jeanne O'Brien Coffey, CONTRIBUTOR

FULL BIO ✓

Opinions expressed by Forbes Contributors are their own.

So now Valentine's Day is upon you ... forgot to make dinner reservations, or order flowers or chocolates... Here are some gifts that take a bit of thought—and in some cases heaps of cash—but can be purchased right now and presented tonight. You're welcome.

Book Your Own Private Castle for $20,000

At Straffan House, a spectacular private residence nestled on 550 acres of idyllic Irish countryside, the deluxe “My Lovely Valentine” package comes with a personal butler on hand 24/7 to draw rose petal baths and offer champagne turn-down service, a private chef for aphrodisiac meals, personal driver for dreamy drives in a vintage 1936 Jaguar, a private spa for couples treatments and an indoor swimming pool, an old-fashioned cinema theater complete with red velvet reclining movie chairs, and well, really, at $20,000 per night, basically anything you ask for you shall receive.

Straffan House

The swimming pool in the Straffan House at The K Club in County Kildare.